

File Organization

I organized my WRA 210 website into folders by creating a Modules folder. All the modules and related materials were moved to that folder. For multi-part modules, I created another folder within the Modules folder to contain all of those pieces. This structure seemed the simplest and easiest way to organize my content.